

WCS Madagascar

A Wildlife Conservation Society Program

Local communities who took part in the reforestation at Andranoanala site, © WCS by Rolien 21/01/2024

News Report

Restoration of the forest fragment
Andranoanala, Masoala National Park, MaMaBay landscape

Project Leader: Félix Ratelolahy

Funds: Orchester des Wandels (OdW), Friends of Masoala (FoM) and Zoo Zurich

1stQuarter 2024

Photo 01: Seedlings transplantation into pots at Anjanaharibe site

©

Photo 02: Nursery transportation by local worker at Andranoanala site,

Nursery transportation by local worker at Andranoanala site, March 2024 © WCS Madagascar

Photo 03. And Photo 04: A total of 14,610 young trees were transplanted to 16.6 ha of land during the first quarter of 2024.

Transplanting nurseries at Andranoanala site, January 2024 © WCS Madagascar

Photo 4:

Nursery transplanting, Andranoanala site, January 2024 © WCS Madagascar

Photo 05: Silvicultural maintenance involves weeding the restored plots and replacing dead plants. This maintenance is necessary to prevent the seedlings growth being hindered by weeds. During the first quarter of 2024, 111.1 ha of plots were maintained.

Sylvicultural Maintenance, January 2024 © WCS Madagascar